I would like to urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160 and allow XM to provide any radio programming they desire. I love my XM, I pay for my XM, and I should continue to use the features that deem it better to me. Corporate greed is all it boils down too, and I say TOUGH, come up with your own competition but dont cry to the FCC when something better is taking your monopoly away. Thanks,

Brit Ewers

University of Texas at Austin Student